Scripture for Today

Acts 17:16-34

¹⁶ While Paul was waiting for them in Athens, he was greatly distressed to see that the city was full of idols. ¹⁷ So he reasoned in the synagogue with both Jews and God-fearing Greeks, as well as in the marketplace day by day with those who happened to be there. ¹⁸ A group of Epicurean and Stoic philosophers began to debate with him. Some of them asked, "What is this babbling trying to say?" Others remarked, "He seems to be advocating foreign gods." They said this because Paul was preaching the good news about Jesus and the resurrection. ¹⁹ Then they took him and brought him to a meeting of the Areopagus, where they said to him, "May we know what this new teaching is that you are presenting? ²⁰ You are bringing some strange ideas to our ears, and we would like to know what they mean." ²¹ (All the Athenians and the foreigners who lived there spent their time doing nothing but talking about and listening to the latest ideas.)

²² Paul then stood up in the meeting of the Areopagus and said: "People of Athens! I see that in every way you are very religious. ²³ For as I walked around and looked carefully at your objects of worship, I even found an altar with this inscription: TO AN UNKNOWN GOD. So you are ignorant of the very thing you worship—and this is what I am going to proclaim to you.

²⁴ "The God who made the world and everything in it is the Lord of heaven and earth and does not live in temples built by human hands. ²⁵ And he is not served by human hands, as if he needed anything. Rather, he himself gives everyone life and breath and everything else. ²⁶ From one man he made all the nations, that they should inhabit the whole earth; and he marked out their appointed times in history and the boundaries of their lands. ²⁷ God did this so that they would seek him and perhaps reach out for him and find him, though he is not far from any one of us. ²⁸ 'For in him we live and move and have our being.' As some of your own poets have said, 'We are his offspring.'

²⁹ "Therefore since we are God's offspring, we should not think that the divine being is like gold or silver or stone - an image made by human design and skill. ³⁰ In the past God overlooked such ignorance, but now he commands all people everywhere to repent. ³¹ For he has set a day when he will judge the world with justice by the man he has appointed. He has given proof of this to everyone by raising him from the dead."

³² When they heard about the resurrection of the dead, some of them sneered, but others said, "We want to hear you again on this subject." ³³ At that, Paul left the Council. ³⁴ Some of the people became followers of Paul and believed. Among them was Dionysius, a member of the Areopagus, also a woman named Damaris, and a number of others.

1 Cor. 1:25

The foolishness of God is wiser than man's wisdom, and the weakness of God is stronger than man's strength.

PRAYER GUIDE

MISSIONARIES OF THE WEEK

WALTER & CINDY SELKE

NCEM & HEALING HEARTS, REGINA, SK

Walter and I just finished a Family Camp in southern SK (only 6 days' notice for Walter to prepare 6 messages-he loved the challenge!). So now we are back in Prince Albert for a couple of days and I am catching up on Personnel paperwork and Walter is writing an article for Northern Lights publication.

Here are some praise & prayer and it is a privilege to share these things. Crossroads is our family and we want to share what is happening. We appreciate the support in so many ways, not just finances but the prayer backing is huge!!!

Praise:

- * for opportunities to begin traveling once again
- * for faithful supporters like Crossroads Community Church who are compassionate to the First Nations people and want to see them come to Christ
- * for Walter's health being stable/monitored

Prayer:

- * for Walter's health being stable/monitored
- The First Nations church needs our prayers in these days!
- * for wisdom as Walter works with the NCEM Executive Team to lead the mission, esp. navigating the COVID restrictions and now guiding through the finding of the graves at residential schools
- * for Healing Hearts Ministries as they seek new Director, new pastor for Regina ministry and new bookkeeper/administrator, as well
- * for the NCEM summer camps (Arrowhead, Pine Ridge and Big River) as they do either Day camps/VBS style programs or prepare for some overnight weeks of camp in August

THANK YOU for praying for us as a family and for the First Nations communities of Canada!
